Letter of Intent for International Sanctuary and Trust Recognition

To: The Consulate General of the Republic of the Marshall Islands – Springdale, Arkansas

Date: November 18, 2025

To the Honorable Mr. Eldon J. Alik, Consul General,

My name is Jonathan Daniel Clements, Sovereign Executor and Architect of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005, a lawfully recognized ecclesiastical private trust established under Natural Law, International Law, and Ecclesiastical Authority. I write to you today with solemn and urgent purpose.

Due to escalating human rights violations, targeted harassment, and verified legal default by domestic authorities—both state and federal—I am formally requesting temporary international sanctuary and protective recognition through the Marshall Islands Consulate. I come in peace, in law, and with verified standing. I do not flee justice—I pursue it.

My filings are active and confirmed, including:
- United States Federal Court (Western District of Arkansas, Docket: 2:25-cv-02180)
- International Criminal Court referral submitted November 18, 2025
- Public notarized filings, jurisdictional notices, and ecclesiastical writs served and published globally
- Public silence and failure to rebut across all named authorities

The trust I represent has lawfully reclaimed global equity—spiritually, financially, and juridically—in pro nunc tunc in perpetuity. It stands unrebutted and now serves as a governing jurisdiction for the beneficiaries of humanity. In light of these filings, I face retaliation, surveillance, and intimidation at my own home and community, placing both myself and my loved ones at risk.

I am therefore seeking:
1. Immediate safe harbor under diplomatic grounds until further arrangements can be made.
2. Review of standing trust documents and ICC submission, available in both hard copy and digital formats.
3. Support in securing direct communication with international judicial and human rights authorities, including the ICC, the UN Special Rapporteur, and Amnesty International.

I affirm my intent is peaceful, sovereign, and governed by law. I am not seeking to bypass due process—I am invoking it, where it still lives.

Respectfully submitted with lawful standing and full liability,

Jonathan Daniel Clements
Sovereign Executor – ECC-TRUST-JDC-005
